

Dear Marissa,

It has certainly been a busy and positive year for Spectra in both our London and Edinburgh offices. As the year continues to unfold with exciting developments, we at Spectra want to keep you updated on what is new and up and coming in our vibrant destinations. We are thrilled to share updates on our participation in IMEX America, introduce you to spectacular venues through our video library, explore London's vibrant hotel scene and a spotlight on why Liverpool should be considered if you are looking for a new city to explore in the UK.

IMEX America: Meet Spectra DMC

We're delighted to announce our participation in IMEX America. Frances, Paul, Graeme and Mark we will be in Las Vegas 17-19th October which is an excellent opportunity to connect, learn and explore new possibilities together.

We invite you to join us at stand E1716 where we'll share our latest offerings and discuss how we can create unforgettable experiences when organising a program within the UK. If you are also going to be at IMEX, please drop by to say hello or schedule an appointment. Click here

Spectra's Video Venue Introductions: Painted Hall, Greenwich

We are proud to unveil our new video library feature which offers a visual tour (through the Spectra lens) of unique venues across the UK and perfect for finding inspiration for your next event or program. Our latest addition showcases the iconic Painted Hall at the Old Royal Naval College in Greenwich where Frances can be seen giving more details of the venue. Please take a virtual tour and discover other extraordinary locations by watching it here.

London's Hotel Market: New Entrants

London's vibrant hotel scene continues to grow with several exciting new additions. Here is a quick look at some of the newcomers:

The Peninsula:
This luxurious hotel offers a blend of classic elegance and modern sophistication.

and finally...

Spectra In Scotland: A flagship gallery on the Mound

The National Galleries of Scotland has announced that its flagship gallery on the Mound will open its long-awaited, £38m extension to the public on 30 September 2023. The Scottish National Gallery Project doubles the amount of exhibition space in the William Playfair building for the nation's Scottish art collection, with ten new galleries.

It's a stunning new event space for dinners and drinks receptions.

Spectra Supplier Party: Celebrating Together

We wanted to thank our committed and trusted supplier partners for their support on our many programmes over the past years and celebrate our successes together. We held a party at Woods Quay and what a night it was! It was wonderful to come together and celebrate the hard work and dedication that makes Spectra the premier destination management company it is today. We extend our heartfelt thanks to all our suppliers and partners who attended. Missed out? You can catch up with the highlights by watching the video recap here.

As we look forward to the remainder of 2023 and beyond, we are grateful for your continued support and partnership. We are excited about the opportunities that lie ahead and exploring them with you.

We look forward to seeing you at IMEX America!
